What:

Literacy Through Music - Ten schools will join together to celebrate literacy through music. Using Character Education as the platform, this initiative combines the talents and expertise of songwriter Gregg Lawless and educators to support the Language and Music curriculum.

Where:

Markham Theatre
171 Town Centre Boulevard
Markham

When:

Monday, May 17
7:00 p.m.

Why:

Students and teachers have worked with songwriter Gregg Lawless to explore song-writing as a medium to enhance the delivery of the language arts program. During the artist-in-residence sessions, students wrote lyrics to effectively convey a message through song. Ten songs will be performed by the ten participating classes, backed up by a five-piece band.

Who:

YRDSB staff and students.
